Dear Mr. Furtck:

Re: Mrs. Helen Valego, British subject, and son, Edward John, age 6 months.

We note your remarks concerning Mrs. Valego and the fact she is ready to sail on a 24-hour notice.

The first departure on which we have available space at the present time is the Ile de France, leaving New York August 20, cabin class.

I hesitate to suggest either the Ile or the De Grasse on July 30 because I know for a certainty both these departures in all classes are currently booked to capacity. The only possibility might be first class on the De Grasse, leaving New York July 30, the rate for which will vary between $215 and $320. If you would like us to apply for first class on the De Grasse July 30 or cabin class on the Ile August 20, please let us know.

Sincerely yours,

C. A. Emery

Dear Sir:-

With reference to your letter of July 7th, it is with regret we must inform you that there is very little possibility of our being able to accommodate the above in Tourist Class on any of our July departures. In fact, Tourist Class is fully booked through late September and all requests are now being registered on waiting lists.

However, if by some chance it should be possible for us to accommodate your client, we shall promptly advise you.

Very truly yours,

We realize that it is rather difficult to obtain a reservation for a tourist class cabin for July, on the [illegible] Victory, but we would appreciate it if you could let us know if there is any possibility for the above-mentioned who wishes to go to Scotland for two months.

The above is in possession of her sailing documents, and would be able to sail about that date.

Dear Sir:

MRS. HELEN VALEGO AND INFANT ~~DAUGHTER~~ son Edward John
AGE 5 MONTHS

We have your letter of June 13th, requesting Tourist Class accommodations in any of our sailings during the month of July, preferably by July 7th, for the above.

We regret to inform you that all Tourist Class accommodation in all of our ships is fully committed between now and October and we can see no possibility of providing for additional applicants. If these people can amend their plans to travel in Cabin Class, it is quite possible that something might be arranged in one of our August sailings, but before that it will be impossible.

Since you are located under the jurisdiction of our Boston Office and since it would be more convenient for you, we ask that you complete all further dealings with them. Their address is 393 Boylston Street, Boston 17, Mass.

Yours very truly,
